

INTERNATIONAL CHESS COMMITTEE OF THE DEAF

33rd I.C.C.D. Congress, Yerevan 2016

PROPOSAL No. 1

Proposed by: The I.C.C.D Executive Board

Motion:

Change the ICCD Executive Board re. Statutes

Replace the ICCD Vice-President with the ICCD Treasurer

Explanation:

The Treasurer has to be involved with all ICCD matters relating to finance, and must attend the ICCD Executive Meetings. The Vice President shall replace the President should he be absent from functions or meetings.

INTERNATIONAL CHESS COMMITTEE OF THE DEAF

33rd I.C.C.D. Congress, Yerevan 2016

PROPOSAL No. 2

Proposed by: The I.C.C.D Executive Board

Motion:

New ICCD Regulations for European Deaf Individual and Team Chess to be accepted

Explanation:

Self-explanatory. ICCD had their 1st European Deaf Team Championships at Baku in 2015, and will have their 1st European Individual Championships therefore it is necessary to draw up such regulations.

INTERNATIONAL CHESS COMMITTEE OF THE DEAF

33rd I.C.C.D. Congress, Yerevan 2016

PROPOSAL No. 3

Proposed by: The I.C.C.D Executive Board

Motion:

The ICCD Society of Friends of Chess should be renamed "Friends of ICCD Chess"

Explanation:

Self-explanatory - - the title should be kept simple.

INTERNATIONAL CHESS COMMITTEE OF THE DEAF

33rd I.C.C.D. Congress, Yerevan 2016

PROPOSAL No. 4

Proposed by: The I.C.C.D Executive Board

Motion:

The ICCD Archives Commission is to be scrapped.

Explanation:

The Archives Commission has been rather ineffective in terms of communication over the last few years. We should simply have just a curator for the ICCD Archives at Warrington Museum, and ICCD should regular receive updated catalogued lists every year.

INTERNATIONAL CHESS COMMITTEE OF THE DEAF

33rd I.C.C.D. Congress, Yerevan 2016

PROPOSAL No. 5

Proposed by: The I.C.C.D Executive Board

Motion:

The ICCD Statutes are to be slimmed down with Regulations removed.

ICCD is also to provide a simpler version of the ICCD Statutes to help ICCD member countries understand better.

Explanation:

The ICCD Regulations should have been kept separate in the first instance, and would change from time to time in accordance with the FIDE regulations whereas the ICCD Statutes should be more uniform or consistent.

INTERNATIONAL CHESS COMMITTEE OF THE DEAF

33rd I.C.C.D. Congress, Yerevan 2016

PROPOSAL No. 6

Proposed by: The I.C.C.D Executive Board

Motion:

ICCD is to consider becoming partners with the International Draughts Association for the deaf and give a demonstration event within the next two years.

Explanation:

Chess and Draughts share the same board and certain principles so there is the incentive to increase numbers in participation.

INTERNATIONAL CHESS COMMITTEE OF THE DEAF

33rd I.C.C.D. Congress, Yerevan 2016

PROPOSAL No. 7

Proposed by: The I.C.C.D Executive Board

Motion:

ICCD is to form a Legislation Committee.

Explanation:

There is nothing in the ICCD Statutes that suggest any form of legislation hence the need to have one. We need a sub-committee to look up legal aspects and review all proposals and motions submitted prior to the ICCD Congress amongst other things.

INTERNATIONAL CHESS COMMITTEE OF THE DEAF

33rd I.C.C.D. Congress, Yerevan 2016

PROPOSAL No. 8

Proposed by: The I.C.C.D Executive Board

Motion:

An increase to the Protest fee to 50 EUROS.

Explanation:

ICCD has the obligation to take such protests seriously; the current fee is too little for a lot of effort to be taken up.

INTERNATIONAL CHESS COMMITTEE OF THE DEAF

33rd I.C.C.D. Congress, Yerevan 2016

PROPOSAL No. 9

Proposed by: The I.C.C.D Executive Board

Motion:

The fee for any international matches or club team tournaments is to be abolished.

Explanation:

ICCD wishes to promote deaf chess all over the world, and encourages more deaf chess activities without wanting to impose any fees.

INTERNATIONAL CHESS COMMITTEE OF THE DEAF

33rd I.C.C.D. Congress, Yerevan 2016

PROPOSAL No. 10

Proposed by: The I.C.C.D Executive Board

Motion:

The fee charged for players taking part in other member countries events (individual or team) is to be abolished.

Explanation:

ICCD wishes to promote deaf chess all over the world, and encourages more deaf chess activities without wanting to impose any fees.

PROPOSAL No. 14

Proposed by: The I.C.C.D Executive Board

Motion:

Participation fee:

Club team - One person - 20 Euro (all clubs are permitted, several clubs from one country may participate)

Explanation:

Still pay 40 Euro for the team does not cover the costs ICCD.

INTERNATIONAL CHESS COMMITTEE OF THE DEAF

33rd I.C.C.D. Congress, Yerevan 2016

PROPOSAL No. 15

Proposed by: The I.C.C.D Executive Board

Motion:

Future events for the European Individual Championships shall only include the Club Team Championships.

Explanation:

It was evident at Baku 2015 that the European Deaf Team Championships was affected by the Club Team Championships being held at the same time.

INTERNATIONAL CHESS COMMITTEE OF THE DEAF

33rd I.C.C.D. Congress, Yerevan 2016

PROPOSAL No. 16

Proposed by: The I.C.C.D Executive Board

Motion:

Amendment to ICCD Statutes, Article 4 “Board”

The President and the newly appointed Board shall commence their duties immediately on the day after the conclusion of the ICCD Congress.

Explanation:

Having to wait until 1st January of the following year would result in a few months lost. The immediate handover of duties and papers could easily take place given the presence of officials past and present.

INTERNATIONAL CHESS COMMITTEE OF THE DEAF

33rd I.C.C.D. Congress, Yerevan 2016

PROPOSAL No. 17

Proposed by: The I.C.C.D Executive Board

Motion:

Addition to Article 1, Paragraph 7:

ICCD is affiliated to the International Committee of Sports for the Deaf (ICSD) as an associate member.

Explanation:

As agreed at the 32nd ICCD Congress, Opatica 2014, ICCD's application for membership to the ICSD was successfully accepted.
