01. President A.J. Boyce warmly welcomed the delegates and declared the 25th I.C.S.C. Congress open. He gave full appreciation to P. Gardner (Eng) for offering his services as Minute-taker for the past five Congresses. He then praised R.H. van Perlstein (Ned) for his loyalty, having attended 18 Congresses, the last 5 coming out his own expenses.

He requested all to pay their respects to the following bereaved with a minute's silence:

O. Punschke (Ger), W. Kaspers (Ned), G. Kopton (Ger) and M. Araujo (Por).

He highlighted the 50 glorious years of the I.C.S.C. since its formation in 1949 when the four countries – Finland, Denmark, Netherlands and Norway – met and established the I.C.S.C. but within the auspices of the C.I.S.S. (the I.C.S.C. became independent in 1956 after the Warsaw Congress).

The President thanked M. Visco for producing a souvenir book on the 50 years of the I.C.S.C., G. Westerveld for working with Visco on the I.C.S.C. Exhibition, and Poland for the decorative work on the I.C.S.C. diploma pennants. He also acknowledged all for the presents, diplomas and cards, stating that he hoped the I.C.S.C. flag would fly higher in the New Millennium.

- 02. M. Grajek (Pol) gave a heart welcome to all the board members and delegates to Zakopane. He was thrilled to see his country host the WC Individuals for the second time, especially in Zakopane (the first being in 1956). He expressed satisfaction on the smooth organisation and hoped sufficient hospitality was given to all.
- 03. The appointed scrutineers for the confirmation of delegates voting powers were as follows: Y. Zuev (Ukr), M. Grajek (Pol), H. Heins (Ger).
- 04. The following National Associations were admitted to the I.C.S.C. by an unanimous vote: ARGENTINA and MOLDOVA.

The President warmly welcomed Argentina's first ever participant, Jorge Nielsen. Moldova promised to settle their financial debts by the end of 2000.

- O5. Apologies wehe received from Meurer (Ger) and Carmichael (Sco).
 All were notified of an adjustment in the Agenda items 10 and 11.
 Both Germany's and England's proposals were accepted to be placed in the Agenda. And the Presidential's proposal were also accepted to be placed in the Agenda.
- 06. The Minutes of the 24th I.C.S.C. Lucerne Congress were unanimously accepted as a true record.
- 07. On the I.C.S.C. Board Report, there were three corrections:

Item 2. Add Team

Item 6.2 Replace Marroc with Marocco

Item 10.1 Include M. Araujo (Portugal)

Of the 31 votes, 29 accepted the I.C.S.C. Board Report, with 2 rejected.

08.1The appointed Financial committee were as follows:

Steinhoff-Klein (Ger), Handy (Eng), Korenkiewicz, J. (Swe).

- 08.2 There were some inaccuracies in the computerised accounts. Therefore the Financial Committee felt obliged not to put forward their proposal for acceptance of the accounts. The President thanked the Committee for their work and would put the corrected financial statement (1998-1999) before the next Congress for approval.
- 08.3 Voting did not take place.
- 08.4 van Perlstein (Ned) as the Honorary Treasurer of the Society of Friends of I.C.S.C. presented a report on the Friends of the said society's steady growth. He regretted the with drawl of the Chairman of the said society, H. Meurer (Ger), due to ill-health. He gave some fund raising suggestions so as to reduce costly bank charges. Income has passed the 6,000 Dutch Guilder mark. There are currently five members in the Society.
- 09. Report of I.C.S.C. Events

- 09.1 Nuesch (Sui) gave some information on the WC Teams event in Lucerne in 1998 and reported a healthy profit largely thanks to the waiving of fees by sponsors and companies.
- 09.2 Lukacsovics (Vice-President, Hun), reported that, despite the short notice, Hungary had managed to get the organisation ready in time for the 1999 European Cup event. 12 teams took part, and there were no financial losses. As for problems, they were minimal, easily resolved. A souvenir issue including the revised EC 1999 table and the revised EC games has been prepared.

Hungary were presented with the I.C.S.C. diploma for their efforts.

09.3 Ferreira (Por) thanked all for their condolences on Araujo's death. He gave a presentation for the European Cup event in 2001, stressing that prompt payment on accommodation fees would make their work much easier.

Queries from both U.S.A. and Ukraine concluded that more notice would be required for "Eastern Bloc" countries to resolve their currency difficulties.

Information Packs were ready for circulation.

09.4 On the WC Teams event in 2002, Sabukiene (Lit) confirmed that the event would go ahead in Lithuania, and gave a brief presentation of their arrangements.

The work would commence once accepted by the I.C.S.C. Board.

- 10. Proposals
- 10.1 The I.C.S.C. Board Proposals were all accepted.

It was agreed that Salov (Rus) on behalf of the I.C.S.C. Board would be elected to the Technical Committe.
